Description

Chestnut bedroom set, mid-20th century Elegant Italian bedroom set from the mid-20th century, crafted from chestnut wood and consisting of a wardrobe, a chest of drawers, and two matching nightstands. The set stands out for its understated and balanced lines, typical of Italian furniture of the era, and for the beauty of the chestnut's natural grain, which lends warmth and character to the pieces. The wardrobe features a solid and functional structure, with doors marked by elegant paneling and a central mirror, while the lower section is completed by practical drawers. The chest of drawers and the two nightstands harmoniously echo the same design, with framed panels, original hardware, and a pleasing simplicity of form that makes the entire set particularly versatile.
