Description

Napoleon III bracelet, dating from the late 19th century, crafted in 18-karat yellow gold with silver inlay using the traditional technique of the period. The central section, slightly domed and tapering at the ends, is set with a sequence of 9 blue sapphires in antique cuts. In cushion and rectangular shapes with irregular contours, the sapphires display shades of deep blue and green. Each stone is separated by two diamond rosettes. The bracelet extends on both sides with an elongated rectangular trombone or forçat chain, complete with a clasp featuring a safety chain; Length: 15.5 cm Weight: 12.7 grams Width: 6 mm
