Description

An interesting depiction of St. Francis in prayer from the Emilia-Romagna region, painted by an artist influenced by Guercino and other painters of this stylistic lineage active in areas of Romagna, such as Carlo Bononi. The canvas is preserved in its original condition; that is, it has never been restored or cleaned. The painting is mounted on a beautiful ebony and marble-stained frame with gilded corners and floral motifs engraved on it, typical of mid-17th-century works from central Italy; the frame is also in its original condition. The dimensions of the painting are listed below. Canvas: 49 cm x 68 cm Frame: 64 cm x 83 cm. A certificate of authenticity is included with the sale.
