

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Nicolas Sinezouboff (1891-1948) - Nighttime Street Scene

12 000 EUR

Signature : Nikolai Sinezubov

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 32

Height : 49

Description

A captivating and atmospheric nocturnal work by the renowned Russian avant-garde painter, Nicolas Sinezouboff. The composition depicts a female figure seen from behind, walking down a dark alleyway beneath the diffuse glow of an emerald-green gas lamp. In the background, a second mysterious figure emerges from the frame of a doorway bathed in warm light. Here, the artist employs a palette of contrasting colors characteristic of his European period, subtly playing with chiaroscuro, urban mystery, and a dramatic tension reminiscent of Expressionism and film noir. The reflections of light on the damp ground lend remarkable texture and depth to the canvas. About the artist: Nicolas Sinezouboff (Nikolai Sinezubov) is a leading Russian painter and graphic artist. A graduate of

Dealer

NewAGG Raritet Antique
Antiquités

Mobile : +436606286810

Habsburgergasse 1A/H-32

Wien 1010

the Moscow School of Painting, Sculpture, and Architecture, he was part of pivotal Russian avant-garde movements such as the Makovets association (of which he was a founding member). In 1922, his works were exhibited at the famous First Exhibition of Russian Art at the Van Diemen Gallery in Berlin. He settled permanently in France (first in Paris, then on the French Riviera) in the late 1920s, becoming a full-fledged member of the School of Paris. His works are now held in prestigious public collections, notably at the Tretyakov Gallery in Moscow, as well as in international private collections. Condition: Good original condition, oil on canvas, signed lower left "N. Sinezouboff".