Description

A charming oil painting on hardboard by Pierre Plouhinec, depicting a picturesque fisherman's cottage overlooking the coastline of Douarnenez, in Brittany. The artist sensitively captures the peaceful atmosphere of this coastal landscape: a traditional home with whitewashed walls, bordered by low stone walls, opens onto a path where two figures are walking toward the sea. In the background, a few sailboats enliven the bay beneath a luminous sky rendered with a free and lively touch. The color palette, blending deep greens, ochres, and delicate blues, accurately captures the light of Brittany. Pierre Plouhinec's Impressionist style lends the composition a beautiful spontaneity and a genuine sense of poetry. A captivating work celebrating Brittany's maritime heritage and the timeless charm of the
