800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Beautiful original framed drawing. Gouache and watercolor. 49 x 94.7 cm (image size), in a frame measuring 59 x 105 cm. A few scratches on the frame. Signed lower right: "L. Morillon, son of a mechanic, in Suresnes, August 25, 1862." Scale of 1:10. Locomotive of the Compagnie des Chemins de fer de l'Ouest (marked "Ouest 329" on the tender). Markings on the frame: "No. 48, Ernest Göüin, Paris," "329," and "Épernon." Ernest Göüin was a leading 19th-century locomotive builder who established his business in Batignolles in 1846. Épernon is the name of a town in the Eure-et-Loir department and, more importantly, a station on the Paris-Chartres line. A beautiful drawing with vivid colors and great technical precision. Ref. A14-84
