Description

A pair of very small 19th-century miniature pistols, made of metal finely engraved with floral motifs and featuring white-material grips. The mechanisms are functional. One of the pistols bears an "LG" hallmark, associated with Liège. The set comes with several small accessories and is presented in a blackened wooden box with gold and red decoration, lined with blue velvet. This type of miniature work could have served as a master's piece, intended to demonstrate the gunsmith's technical skill and precision. Details: Period: 19th century, Origin: Liège, Belgium, Materials: engraved metal, white material, wood, brass, and velvet, Length of pistols: 4.2 cm, Case dimensions: 9.8 × 8 cm, Condition: signs of use and age; mechanisms in working order; case shows wear and cracking in the decoration.
