Description

Vintage table lamp (circa 1980) from the prestigious French crystal manufacturer Daum. This iconic model, titled "Vent d'Ouest," features a sleek and stylized representation of a sailboat's silhouette. Base: Crafted from solid, very high-quality Daum crystal. The sculptural, openwork hull-shaped base creates a magnificent play of light thanks to its transparency and its fluid, dynamic lines. Lampshade: The original lampshade is designed to evoke the image of sails. It consists of two asymmetrical panels of textured fabric in ecru/off-white (likely linen or heavy cotton), encasing a slender gold-plated brass rod. Its pointed shape accentuates the object's elegance and sense of movement. Signature: The lamp is signed "Daum France," engraved with a stylus at the base of the
