

Jean-baptiste-claude Odier Pair Of Silver And Vermeil Salt Cellars, Paris, First Empire, 1803-1

2 400 EUR

Signature : Odier

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

A pair of solid silver salt cellars resting on a circular pedestal. The slightly flared bowls are accented with friezes of water leaves and feature a vermeil interior. Their balanced composition and neoclassical decoration reflect the characteristic elegance of Parisian silversmithing during the First Empire. Hallmark of Jean-Baptiste-Claude Odier. First-class rooster hallmark, Paris, 950 parts per thousand silver. Paris, 1803-1809 Silver and vermeil Height: 5.7 cm Diameter: 7.5 cm Total weight: 150 g Very good condition. Slight signs of wear on the inside of one of the salt cellars.

Dealer

Collection

Rare & Unusual Objects

Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000