Description

Extremely elegant, this pair of chintz curtains designed by the renowned fabric designer Sanderson embodies all the refinement of British interiors. The delicately composed design features large bouquets of heirloom roses in shades of pink and soft green, subtly intertwined with ribbons and cords adorned with tassels. The design is accented by light and graceful foliage, evoking a romantic and timeless spirit. This iconic pattern, both warm and sophisticated, perfectly captures the charm of English homes, blending floral tradition with decorative elegance. Crafted from a beautiful chintz fabric, these curtains offer a soft and generous drape, perfectly accentuated by their lining and pre-sewn gathering tape.
