

Swiss Exchange Table--late 17th Century

3 800 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Walnut

Width : 103

Height : 75

Depth : 65

Description

Table with an octagonal inlaid top topped with an octagonal marble slab. It has four turned baluster legs and an H-shaped crossbar. The marquetry decoration is made of local woods (Alpine walnut, shaded walnut, beech, hornbeam, etc.) and primarily depicts heraldic lions. Opens to reveal a wide front drawer. Tables with very similar tops and no signatures were attributed to the famous cabinetmaker Thomas Hache in the late 20th century by auctioneers. In excellent condition; a small spindle is missing from the pediment beneath the drawer.
