Description

Art Deco table in Indian rosewood and thuja burl, dating from the second quarter of the 20th century in Italy. The rectangular, finely crafted tabletop is supported by a pair of "U"-shaped legs featuring ebonized molding, which rest on solid oval plinth bases. This structure lends the table an elegant stability and an aesthetic distinctive of the Art Deco period. The tabletop features pull-out drawers along the short sides, designed to hold extension leaves that are not currently available. A refined addition to any living space, capable of evoking the elegance of historic Italian design. Product condition: This product requires restoration and re-polishing due to its age and wear.
