Description

A Barocchetto-style single bed, crafted from walnut and dating from the first half of the 20th century, from Italy. The frame features elegant floral carvings and volutes that highlight the craftsmanship typical of the period. Vienna straw inlays embellish the headboard and footboard, lending lightness and refinement to the overall design. The sinuous legs and curvilinear details characteristic of the Barocchetto style blend harmoniously, making this bed a piece of furniture of great aesthetic and historical value. Ideal for spaces that call for a touch of classic elegance and distinction. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this product requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the furniture as completely as possible through the photos. If certain details are
