Description

A set of six Umbertine chairs in walnut, from late 19th-century Italy, featuring elegant leaf motifs and scrollwork adorning the top of the backrest. The rear legs feature a curved profile, while the front legs are finely turned and truncated pyramidal in shape with an octagonal cross-section. Both the seat and the backrest are upholstered, offering refined comfort. The use of walnut, typical of the Umbertine style, lends a warm and sophisticated appearance, perfect for spaces that call for a touch of history and period craftsmanship. Product Condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and re-polishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
