

Framed Signed Pencil Figure Studies

Description

Description This charming figurative study on paper presents a series of observational sketches depicting women and children in quiet, everyday moments. Executed in graphite and delicate touches of blue wash, the composition has the immediacy and spontaneity of an artist's sketchbook, capturing posture, gesture, and expression with remarkable economy of line. Artist The artist has not been identified. The work bears an indistinct signature in the lower right. Movements Realism Artist Influenced by Influenced by the European academic drawing tradition and the figurative studies of Edgar Degas and Mary Cassatt. Frame Condition Housed in an ornate vintage gilt frame with age-related wear, complementing the character of the artwork. Packing, Shipping and insurance from
