Description

A walnut drop-front chest of drawers from the Veneto region dating to the late 18th century, featuring an elegant front with three drawers and walnut burl inlays. The rosewood trim is harmoniously incorporated into the upper drop-front door, the interior top, and the sides, lending the piece a refined and cohesive appearance. The interior features a storage unit consisting of four drawers and a central open compartment surmounted by an arch. The shelf-style legs provide stability and a touch of elegance, while the fir wood interior ensures sturdiness and durability. The bronze vents and handles add a further touch of sophistication. Ideal for enriching spaces with a touch of history and craftsmanship. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and
