Description

A late 19th-century floor lamp from Italy, featuring an ornate carved wooden base depicting a cherub holding a candelabra. The base features carved scrollwork, while the lampshade, made of metal and gilded sheet metal, is skillfully crafted with branches of foliage and floral elements. The lamp, equipped with five light fixtures, is adorned with clear and purple glass pendants that add a touch of elegance and refinement. This work of lighting art skillfully combines fine materials and detailed craftsmanship, representing a distinctive example of the decorative style of the era. 5 E14 light bulbs
