Description

Set of three incised raw stoneware sculptural vases Joan Miró style & signature, 1965 A magnificent and imposing set of 3 sculptural vases made of raw chamotte stoneware, dated 1965, with Miró's signature on two of the vases. These pieces showcase remarkable craftsmanship with a rough, mineral-like texture reminiscent of sand or carved stone. The design is entirely incised into the clay, depicting stylized figures, naive creatures, and stars drawn directly from Joan Miró's visual repertoire and artistic universe. Two of the two scroll-shaped vases bear the signature "65 Miro" engraved at the bottom of both pieces. Unglazed raw chamotte stoneware. Hand-incised engraved decoration. Art Brut, Modernist, studio ceramics from the 1960s. Height: approximately 35 to 40 cm per
