Description

Welcome, and thank you for your interest in this item. A charming antique figurative seal depicting a young woman in traditional dress holding a small dog in her arms. Her clothing, headdress, and the small animal are finely sculpted on all sides. This seal is likely of French or Central European origin and can be dated to around 1880-1910. It appears to be made of yellow bronze or brass. It features a beautiful, natural antique patina, darker in the recesses, contrasting with the golden-colored raised areas. The circular die bears an elegant intertwined monogram, likely composed of the letters E and B. A charming decorative object, intended for collectors of antique seals, small bronzes, and writing accessories. The seal is in good vintage condition, with normal signs of age and use.
