Description

Bronze sculpture group--children with a goat, in the style of Clodion. A charming bronze sculpture group on a rectangular pedestal, depicting two children and a young faun/bacchante (crowned with vine leaves and holding a bunch of grapes) gathered around a goat--a classic Bacchic scene, popularized by 18th-century French sculptors such as Clodion. A finely detailed cast with a warm, nuanced patina. A charming decorative piece, ideal for a desk, a mantelpiece, or a display case.
