Description

The painting, an oil on canvas, depicts a portrait of a young woman in the figurative style of the early 20th century: the woman, wearing heavy makeup, has a fur cloak draped over her shoulder. The painting is signed and dated in the lower left corner, but both are difficult to read; one can seem to make out "1931." On the right, there is a label with the number 3, which suggests it may have been part of an exhibition. The painterly style reflects the figurative and expressionist trends in European portraiture of the interwar period: lines and perspectives are altered to amplify the subject's dramatic impact, and the colors are vivid and intense to convey emotion. The painting is in good condition. Dimensions canvas: 46 x 38.5 cm frame: 55.5 x 46
