Description

Oil on canvas measuring 50 cm x 61 cm, plus a carved wooden frame from which the paint has apparently been stripped, measuring 65 cm x 76 cm
Signed lower right: F. TISOT
The painter of the South of France and olive trees
Born in 1909, he first worked as a pastry chef in La Seyne-sur-Mer
Then his passion for painting and his encounter with Baboulène led him to become a professional artist
His relentless work led him to exhibit in Paris (he used to joke that, for him, Paris was like Lourdes)
He achieved great international renown
From Japan to Israel, many of his paintings are found in American collections
He died in 1979
This painting comes from the estate of his son Henri TISOT, a famous actor and comedian
A book chronicles this painter's career
