Description

Art Nouveau marquetry table signed H. Hazard, Nancy - circa 1900. Elegant Art Nouveau table made of wood and marquetry, featuring a remarkable tabletop with a rural scene. The composition depicts a rooster in a rural landscape, accompanied by stylized vegetation, fields, and farm buildings. The design is executed in marquetry using various types of wood, offering beautiful contrasts in tones, grain patterns, and textures. The tabletop bears the signature "H. Hazard." The table rests on four curved legs with flowing lines, characteristic of the Art Nouveau decorative style. The tabletop is framed by a molded border. Several works bearing the signature "H. Hazard Nancy" are now listed in international public auctions, notably display cases and furniture with marquetry decoration. A
