Description

A beautiful polychrome glazed stoneware vase by Joseph Mougin (1876-1961), Nancy, model 130.J, known as "Épis à perles." A slender conical form resting on a wide circular base, decorated with a rich relief decoration of stylized leaves and ears of grain, punctuated by beaded motifs. Beautiful polychrome in shades of turquoise blue, celadon green, mauve, cream, and yellow-green, with subtle crystallization effects. The vase has incised signature "Mougin Nancy," "J. Mougin," and "130.J" on the underside: Height: 30 cm. In excellent condition. No cracks, chips, or restoration. An elegant example of Art Nouveau production from the Mougin factory in Nancy.
