Description

A Louis-Philippe-era desk made of solid walnut, dating from the 19th century. It features a brown leather-covered top, accented by decorative piping, providing a beautiful work surface. The front features five drawers, adorned with bronze handles and lock plates, creating a balanced and understated design. The piece rests on four finely crafted turned legs, characteristic of Louis-Philippe furniture. A striking piece, both functional and refined, ideal for an office, a library, or a home with character. Delivery in France: 200 EUR 129 cm by 70 cm, height 75 cm.
