Description

Louis-Philippe-style coffee table in cherry wood, recently crafted. A lovely coffee table crafted in the Louis-Philippe style, made of cherry wood with warm tones. It features a rectangular top with a molded frame, resting on four turned legs typical of the style. The front features two drawers, adorned with bronze knobs, offering convenient storage. Ideal as a living room coffee table or side table. Recently crafted, with a beautiful finish that highlights the natural grain of the cherry wood. The top has a stain-resistant satin varnish.
