Sculpture Depicting "venus At Her Bath"

Description

An important sculpture in white statuary marble with a base inlaid with yellow marble and Belgian Black marble. An elegant and refined sculpture in white statuary marble depicting Venus at Her Bath, a highly popular motif in the Neoclassical tradition, inspired by models from Greco-Roman antiquity. The goddess is captured in a moment of intimate grace as she gently lifts the drapery, in a sinuous and harmonious pose that highlights the purity of the forms and the sculptural quality of the work. The work stands out for its excellent craftsmanship in statuary marble, characterized by a delicate anatomical rendering and a refined surface treatment that lends softness and luminosity to the figure. The composition is further enhanced by the exquisite octagonal architectural base, also carved from
