Description

Jacques Callot - Saint Andrew, Etching on Antique Laid Paper, 17th-18th Century

Jacques Callot (Nancy, 1592-1635)

Etching on laid paper

Dimensions: approx. 14.4 × 9.4 cm

Plate engraved: 1631

Impression: 17th-18th century

Lieure 1302, second or third state of three

Saint Andrew is depicted with the large X-shaped cross of his martyrdom and two fish, referring to his original occupation as a fisherman. In the background, Callot includes two small scenes from the Apostle's life: his preaching and his martyrdom.

The print belongs to Les Grands Apôtres, a series engraved in 1631 during Callot's mature period, after his return to Nancy following his long stay
