Description

Louis XV-style console table - Cream and gold lacquered wood - White marble top
Elegant Louis XV-style console table, crafted from carved wood, lacquered in a soft cream shade and accented with rich gilding. The ornate middle band features extensive carved decoration of foliage, shells, and scrolls, extending down the four curved legs. The contrast between the ivory background and the gilded ornamentation particularly highlights the relief of the carving. The arched legs are joined by a swirling X-shaped crossbar, also accented with gilding and centered with a decorative turned motif. It is topped by an elegant veined white marble top, scalloped and molded, perfectly following the curves of the console. The piece as a whole presents a highly decorative silhouette, in the
