Description

A set of four Art Deco period clear and frosted molded crystal pedestal bowls (comptoirs) by Baccarat. Features a fluted dish with a scalloped edge supported by a matching fluted flared stem, decorated with alternating clear and satin-finish frosted glass stripes. One piece bears the original paper manufacture label. France (Baccarat). Circa 1930s (Art Deco period). Signed Height: 12 cm / Bowl diameter: 20 cm Good condition. During the Art Deco period, Baccarat created table services and serving pieces combining clear lead crystal with frosted glass techniques. Alternating clear and satin-matte finishes were frequently applied to geometric, fluted, or ribbed moldings to emphasize light reflection and contrast.
