

Baccarat Moulded Crystal Decanter With Swirl Decoration

650 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Description

An antique French clear crystal decanter by Baccarat, featuring a bulbous body and neck molded with swirling spiral ribs (côtes torses) and star motif medallions. Complete with its original matching swirled spherical glass stopper. France (Baccarat). Late 19th / early 20th century. Very good condition. Founded in 1764, the prestigious Baccarat crystal manufactory produced a wide range of molded and cut crystal tableware. Dynamic swirling patterns (moultures à côtes torses) were among Baccarat's most popular signature designs in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, capturing and refracting light across formal dining tables.
