Description

Oil on canvas depicting a harbor landscape, with a cargo ship docked in the foreground next to large cargo cranes; surrounding it are various boats, barges, coastal vessels, and others that bring this painting to life. A very colorful oil on canvas, rendered in a Post-Impressionist style, in which the artist has captured the seaside atmosphere of this harbor, which could be a Mediterranean harbor. Oil painting signed "Christophe Rielland" in the lower left corner, created in the 1950s-1960s. C. Rielland is a painter born in 1932 in Les Sables-d'Olonne; he studied in Lourdes, then at the École des Beaux-Arts in Tarbes and Toulouse, where he took classes with Raoul Bergougnan; he became a member of the Maison des Artistes Français. Oil painting in good condition, comes with an antique
