Description

A large gilded bronze mantelpiece set consisting of a clock and a pair of five-light candelabra. The clock features a rich rocaille decoration composed of foliage motifs, shells, flowers, and female figures in relief, surmounted by a decorative element in the shape of a flame. The dial features Roman numerals and a finely chased center. The candelabra echo the same ornamental style, with sweeping arms and abundant foliage and rocaille decoration. The set is distinguished by the richness of its chasing and the quality of its gilding.
