

Pair Of Antique Spiral-patterned Blown Glass Vases

150 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Glass

Height : 38,5

Description

A pair of clear glass vases, notable for their size, crafted in a classic, slender shape: a narrow base, a wide body, and a narrow neck that flares slightly toward the top. The spiral decoration accentuates the slender silhouette. Made in the second half of the 20th century. Good overall condition, consistent with its age and use. One of the two vases has a minor "cut" measuring about 1.5 cm on the neck (visible in the last two photos). Slight internal opacity due to use, more pronounced in one of the vases.
