

"roman-style" Sword -- 1st Sapper Regiment Of The Consuls' Guard -- 1799. France. Consulate.

2 650 EUR

Signature : À la romaine / Consulat

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Length : 71 cm.

Width : -

Diameter : -

Height : -

Depth : -

Description

Chiseled and gilded cast brass mount in the shape of an eagle's head, with a handle featuring geometric shapes and crossed ribbons, along with a bundle of spears pointing downward. Sturdy rectangular crossguard decorated with staff motifs and a garland of hearts (dimensions 10 x 3.5 x 3 cm). Sturdy forged steel blade with a thin groove down the center of the double-edged blade; length 50.5 cm, width at the heel 5.9 cm. Sturdy scabbard made of thick, black-varnished leather with two brass fittings. SCABBARD FITTING: with a cut-out edge and a lion-headed button for attaching to a belt; marked at the bottom of the fitting with "Long live General-in-Chief Bonaparte." Pommel: with an oval-shaped pommel stud and the inscription "1st Sapper Regiment of the Guard." Weapon length: 71

Dealer

Cartouche 12

Souvenirs Historiques et Tableaux

Mobile : 0688971349

Rue du Pin 46100 Figeac

Lunan 46100

cm.Feance. Late 18th century / Egyptian
Campaign / Consulate.Set in good condition.