Description

Magnificent Normandy wedding cabinet. A 19th-century piece in the Louis XV style. It opens with two central doors richly carved with interlaced friezes and pearl motifs. In the center of the doors is a medallion adorned with oak leaves, an elegant vase of flowers, and velvet panels, each topped by a bouquet of flowers at the top of the door. The side panels are also richly carved and end in two velvet-covered feet characteristic of the Louis XV style. Original lock that works with its key. Delivery and/or installation available upon request.
