Description

View of Rue Saint-Romain in Rouen--a street in the Cathedral district renowned for its antique shops--by the Rouen-based painter Louis-Jacques Vigon (1897-1985), who trained at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris and was known for his decorative works, frescoes for theaters and restaurants. The painting is signed in the lower left corner, titled on the back, and mounted in a molded, painted wooden frame from the 1950s. Without the frame, the painting measures 27.5 x 22.5 cm.
