Description

A beautiful collector's piece worthy of a "Cabinet of Curiosities"--this charming Canton Vete family vase is richly decorated with flowers, butterflies, and figures within cartouches, featuring a base and neck crafted from chiseled gilded bronze in the Napoleon III style. A high-quality piece with rich details and an elegant bulbous shape; the delicate decoration typical of this 18th-century period enhances this fine porcelain piece set against a white background, and the high-quality mountings further highlight this lovely collector's item...
