Description

An antique polychrome wooden crucifix of Neapolitan craftsmanship dating from the 18th century. The composition consists of a wooden cross with perpendicular arms, made of ebony-stained and gilded wood. The figure of the crucified Christ is sculpted in relief and attached to the cross with wooden nails. The body is depicted in an upright position with the arms outstretched and slightly arched upward. The sculpture features naturalistic polychromy with skin tones in shades of pink and brown that highlight the anatomy and the wounds of the Passion. General Condition: Good condition. Provenance: Naples, 18th century. Dimensions: 28 x 8 H70 cm. Documentation: Certificate of Authenticity. Assistance: We are at your disposal
