Description

This elegant antique trunk made of solid oak features a slightly domed lid and a sturdy frame supported by short legs. The front and side surfaces are entirely adorned with traditionally inspired hand-carvings: floral motifs, rosettes, geometric bands, and a large circular medallion on the side. The dark wood, with its natural patina and vivid grain, retains all the authentic character of the era. Ideal as a statement piece of furniture or as a vintage storage chest, it combines functionality with antique value. A one-of-a-kind piece in good condition, with signs of age that highlight its history.
