Description

A beautiful vintage ring dating from the 1920s-1930s, crafted in 18-karat yellow gold. Its wide upper band features an elegant floral and star-shaped design, set with 15 old-cut diamonds harmoniously arranged around a central diamond. The contrast between the yellow gold setting and the white gold bezel particularly highlights the diamonds' brilliance. The generous, slightly domed setting makes a striking statement on the finger and reflects the refined taste of jewelry from that era. The ring is in very good overall condition. Period: circa 1920-1930 Material: 18-karat yellow gold and white gold Stones: 15 old-cut diamonds Weight: 13.3 g Ring size: 62 The ring is currently a size 62. Resizing can be arranged upon request.
