Description

A pair of color botanical prints by Pierre-Antoine Poiteau (1766-1854), a renowned French botanist and illustrator. The plates depict a variety of pear and the "Bigarreau commun," featuring fruits, branches, leaves, and floral details, in the refined style of the great French pomological tradition. These scientific-decorative color prints are from the collection Pomologie française (Paris, 1846). Complete with matching frames. They show patina, yellowing, and normal signs of aging, as visible in the photos. Dimensions with frames: 33 x 46 cm Ref. 341/233
