

Solid Silver Mustard Pot With The "1st Rooster" Hallmark, Late 18th Century

350 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 13,5cm

Description

Solid silver mustard pot, stamped with the "1er Coq" mark (1798-1809), late 18th century or very early 19th century, re-stamped later with the "vieillard" mark. With a blue blown-glass cover in the shape of openwork decoration featuring two chimerae supporting a coat of arms (undated). It is in good condition, with minimal signs of wear. Height: 13.5 cm Net weight (without glass cover): 165.64 g. Discover many other items on our personal website: <https://www.temps-dantan.fr/>

Dealer

Temps d'antan

Antiquités

Mobile : 0689180835

Le Bricollet

Lentilly 69210