Description

An imposing and large pair of 7-light candelabras in gilded bronze from the second half of the 19th century. These candelabras are quite monumental not only in size but also in their rich ornamental quality, featuring a profusion of deeply chiseled Louis XVI motifs. Round base with a beaded rim, a laurel wreath, and cascading acanthus leaves. The fluted shaft is decorated with foliage motifs. 7 light arms, including a central one; the entire piece is richly adorned with cascading and ascending acanthus foliage, and the brackets and cups feature laurel leaves.

Dimensions: 40 x 40 cm Height: 76 cm

Approximate weight of one candelabra: 15 kg.

These candelabras must have been electrified at some point. Good overall condition, normal wear and tear, gilding missing at the base (see photos)
