faces and hands.This iconographic prototype enjoyed such success that it became the model for countless devotional works throughout the 17th and 18th centuries; it was particularly prized for private commissions due to its striking tenderness and formal perfection, especially in the depiction of the faces.A native of the Marche region, Salvi pursued his career in Rome, following the tenets of classicist religious painting of the Bolognese school of Reni, Carracci, and Domenichino, yet managing to develop an independent and, as a result, highly distinctive style. In very good overall condition; there are a few scattered small restorations and some areas where the paint layer has been removed. Framed in a beautiful gilded frame.ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:The work is sold with a certificate of authenticity and a descriptive iconographic sheet.We arrange and organize the transport of purchased works, both within Italy and internationally, through professional and insured carriers.It is also possible to view the painting at our gallery in Riva del Garda; we would be delighted to welcome you and show you our collection of artworks.Please feel free to contact us, with no obligation, for any additional information.Follow us on:https://www.instagram.com/galleriacastelbarco/?hl=ithttps://www.facebook.com/galleriacastelbarco/
