Description

A sacred art sculpture carved from wood and painted in polychrome, depicting a saint (probably the Virgin Mary at the Annunciation or Mary Magdalene) kneeling in a gesture of supplication and devotion. The face is beautifully expressive, and the drapery flows gracefully. Glass eyes; original skin tone preserved. In its original condition with the patina of age. Signs of wear, chipped polychrome, and small visible losses in the gilding and paint, as well as losses on the fingers.
