Description

A legendary, vintage-edition sculpture of a veiled dancer, or "Folies," from the Art Deco period around 1920, created by Marcel Bouraine for the Le Verrier workshops. It depicts a dancer holding a stylized veil, striated with geometric lines, in her hands, standing on a massive Portor marble base with double tiers. Beautiful original patina in nuanced blue-green tones, cast in art cast iron, a material unique to the Le Verrier workshops. The sculpture is signed in relief with "Denis," the pseudonym of Marcel Bouraine, and was produced by the Max Le Verrier workshops. In very good condition, slight staining to marble and light wear to the patina, this is an original edition, not a copy or a reissue. Height: 11,8" Width: 7,9" Marble width and length: 4,7"
