

Antique Egyptian 900 Hallmarked Silver Spice Jar On Tripod Stand,

285 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 12.8 cm

Description

An unusual Egyptian solid silver spice jar. The spice container stands on three slender legs with curled feet and retains its original removable lid. Its surface is extensively hand engraved with birds, flowers, foliage and traditional arabesque ornament. The jar bears numerous Egyptian hallmarks, including the Arabic word "Misr," meaning Egypt, together with the silver standard "900." Height: 12.8 cm (5 inches)

Dealer

Académy Antiques

Asian Art and more

Tel : 06 78 67 97 16

Uzes 30700