Description

A superb oil painting depicting a light-drenched architectural view, in the style of the Post-Impressionists and the mid-20th-century Italian School. The composition is built around a dynamic perspective framed by monumental vaults and arches. The palette of warm, earthy tones (ochres, sienna, beige) is elegantly accented by impasto strokes of white and a touch of intense blue in the sky in the background. A stylized figure lends a human and poetic presence to the scene. The artist favors a lively, generous, and structured brushstroke using a palette knife and a broad brush, capturing the Mediterranean light and the picturesque atmosphere of the old alleyways. Framing and Dimensions Frame: Sold with its original carved and waxed wooden frame, accented with a beige fabric mat that highlights
