

Large, Flat Vase With Cabochons, Made Of Pyrite Stoneware, By André Gutman, 1974

350 EUR

Signature : André Gutman

Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Sandstone

Description

A significant oblong vase made of pyrite-bearing stoneware, with cabochons and plates added around the rim. Created in the Brutalist style of André Gutman, a ceramicist from La Borne; signed and dated 1974, incised on the base. Please note a chip on the foot that does not affect the vase's stability or appearance once it is placed on a surface; the selling price reflects this flaw. 27 cm high x 25 cm wide x 14 cm thick Carefully packaged for shipping
